3. Public Hearing

Mayor Warden opened the September 26, 2019 Public Hearing on proposed tax rate of $.30 per $100. Approximately 35 people were in attendance from various areas of the city from FM 987 to Bend East to CR 278 and Pebble Creek Estates. Many voiced their concerns about the proposed tax rate, and had questions for Council. Among those speaking in opposition were Jo Ann Lawler, Ed Domaracki, Sheree Woods, George Hussong, David Garrick, Tom Rogers, Mercy Kresnik, Billy McMahon. Mayor Warden and Council listened to residents, and responded to questions. Some in attendance asked the city to consider exemptions for seniors and disabled, as well as veterans. Some residents voiced concerns about how the money would be spent. Other residents asked for better plans and better communication from the city, mayor and council, not necessarily on the internet, but through mailers and newsletters. As many as 75 percent of those in attendance said they would agree to volunteer to help the City on roads, studies and other ways.
